

FISE European Series Riders went big in the Comunidad de Madrid to wrap the finals' day! MAY 3rd, 4th, 5th

Huge transfers, massive slams and many surprises, riders went big this weekend to wave the Comunidad de Madrid crowd. More than 25 000 spectators gathered at the Wizink Center to enjoy the BMX Freestyle Park and Skateboard contests.

To complete the program, many activities were set up in front of the stadium. The BMX Flatland and Skateboard initiations were challenging the most curious, and street art artists of Art & FISE were performing live. Today's finals were set up to be huge.

In Skateboard Street the whole final was a super exciting one, with a lot of bangers. Mathias Del Ollio (watch his run) was the most technical guy on the final, and he landed so many huge tricks. He even dropped one of the best trick of the weekend, an insane backside to 270 frontslide lipslide to 270 out. Without the small slam at the end of his run, he would have probably scored bigger. Danny Leon (watch his run) took the second spot, with a super fast riding style where he goes everywhere on the park. After a stratospheric transfer, his second trick was a gnarly gap to smith back to the quarter pipe that he landed first try. Vincent Milou (watch his run) took the win by what a contest needs: good pop, super smooth style, and fresh lines using all the parks. His first run was a perfect one : that's it, that's all.

For BMX Freestyle Park, The lesson of the day would be that nothing is played in advance. And as it says, it's not because you were the 12th at yesterday semi-final that you can't win. And everybody knows how hard it is to keep the first place all the contest long. Today Kenneth Tencio (watch his run) proved that he is one of the guys able to do it, within a super powerful run. He knows how to start a contest properly by flair dropping from the highest wall. Daniel Dhers (watch his run), after a crash in the first run, finally made it to the second place. He is the oldest competitor and the experienced paid off, indeed, he knows how to focus and to take it seriously. He rode within his own style, with many spins, whips, flips and opposite, all wrapped with his signature front flip over the spine on the buzzer. Nick Bruce (watch his run) comes third with a great package of amplitude, smooth style, enhanced by a classic but very well executed 270 invert - efficient.
