FISE WORLD SERIES MONTPELLIER FIRST PRO FINALS OF THE FESTIVAL!

When: 29th May – 2nd June

Where: Rives du Lez - Montpellier - France

Today is a public holiday in France and the crowds turned up in their masses to enjoy a sunny second day on the banks of the River Lez.

SNIPES SKATEBOARD STREET PRO SEMI FINAL

Today we enjoyed the first pro semi final on the brand new Hurricane Skatepark made of smooth concrete. 24 riders were invited to compete to go to the next level. After a tightly fought battle Angelo Giovanni Caro from Peru showed he can beat anyone, anywhere. He qualified first ahead of the always impressive Ke'Chaud Johnson who will surely keep pushing the limits on the gap to rail tomorrow. Expect also Japanese sensation Ryo Sagawa to aim for the repeat after his win last month at FISE WORLD Hiroshima. The surprise package today was 14 years old French Rider Antoine Laurent who was unlucky not to qualify for tomorrow's final, but will defiantly be one to watch out for in the future. Tune in tomorrow for a truly international final with a line up coming from 11 different nations.

The first pro final of the week did not disappoint! Dancers clashed face to face and the jury had to decide between them. Difficult thing, as the level was incredibly high! The Bboys had crazy acrobatics, more dazzling than the others. We will remember the battle between Lagaet and Stewart in the quarter-finals that left the audience speechless, the announcer too! It was finally the Canadian Phil-Wizard who won in the final against French athlete Lagaet, after two crazy runs on the part of the two competitors. He has therefore qualified for the world championships to be held in China on June 23!

It might be a young sport, but the popularity of scooters is undeniable. Ask Dante Hutchinson what it feels to be followed by more than 200 000 kids on instagram. The world champion slammed two times during qualifications yesterday but he benefited from a wild card entry after a qualified rider was injured. The uk superstar honored it by firing today and completed an assured, shirtless and high level run. Dante is back to divine and will challenge tomorrow Jamie Hull who qualified first (89pts) and ended the session and with a crazy double flip.
