IWWF 2-TOWER WORLD CUP 2022 Aarhus, Denmark - September 2 to 4 Riders' list & Competition Format

As the first IWWF 2-TOWER WORLD CUP ever, this weekend's contest has been awaited by many riders from all around the World. From the 2nd to the 4th of September, Aarhus will host the first-ever stage of this new competition sanctioned by IWWF during the Urban Sports Festival Aarhus. It's open to Pro Men and Pro Women, Amateur Men and Women, and Juniors.

02-04 September 2022
Aarhus Watersports Complex, Denmark
Free Entry

Chris Howarth, the IWWF Chairman World Cup committee has been invited to speak during the inaugural ceremony : "On the behalf of the IWWF, we are thrilled to be here in Aarhus and participating in the Aarhus Urban Sports Festival and Water Festival. We are delighted to be with Hurricane & FISE to develop the IWWF 2-Tower Cable Wakeboard World Cup, and pleased that Aarhus is organising our inaugural event".

Clement Nadal, the E-FISE 2020 winner is with us this weekend, and he already shared with us his first impressions about the spot: "2-Tower Cable is the format that I ride the most often. It seems to be pretty short in between module to another, which promises fast and intense runs."

He came with another Frenchie, Enzo Asseraf, who benefits from his first experience in Aarhus two years ago: "I'm stoked to be back here, it's going to be pretty interesting to play with the cable tension of the 2-Tower setup!".
