French riders are right back in the thick of action sports and FWS Montpellier provides the opportunity to put them in the spotlight. Our national riders are amongst the best in the world and compete in many disciplines at international competitions.

Jules CHARRAUD – age 19 – WAKEBOARD

Wakeboard under his arm, a mini ramp at the bottom of his garden, and a tattoo machine in his hand – these characterize three interests of the new French Wakeboard prodigy. In the midst of a media explosion, Jules spends his days alternating between courses at CNED and training sessions, complemented by a few trips to the best locations to report for the famous Handle Webstories.

Aurélie GODET – age 15 – France – WAKEBOARD

Almost 16, Montpelliéraine Aurélie is a great hope of the Wakeboard world and seems to be well on the way to matching her Kitesurf standard. A genuine FISE Montpellier product, she made her debut there at the age of 9 in a world that would become her everyday life a few years later. At the beginning of 2019, she won the U15 World Championships and scored a very promising 3rd place in the Open category.

Auguste PELLAUD – age 20 – SCOOTER FREESTYLE

This constantly smiling 20-year-old Parisian is one of France's most popular Scooter athletes. Auguste leaves nothing to chance and makes every effort to reach the highest level. His very clean runs and powerful, committed tricks earned him 5th place at last year's FWS Montpellier. He rolls with brute power that enables him to pull off the most unlikely tricks.

Nicolas SERVY – age 20 – ROLLER FREESTYLE PARK

Nicolas, the young Roller prodigy from Dijon, manages perfectly to combine a high-level career, his studies, and the coaching of new talent – all with a friendly smile that testifies to his passion! He stands out in every competition thanks to his aerial tricks such as those with which he won the 2018 FISE Montpellier Pro final. Among the youngest and most motivated of riders, he is guaranteed many more podium places in 2019.

Valentin DUBOIS – age 27 – PARKOUR

Valentin, one of the major players in the Parkour family, is already well known for his many appearances on the Ninja Warrior show (which he won in 2016). After discovering Parkour on Reunion Island in 2008, travel and innovation have been two key aspects of his sport. He has travelled widely since the beginning of the year and guaranteed himself training opportunities on a variety of apparatus.

Johan TONNOIR – age 24 – PARKOUR

Johan was an amateur Freerunning enthusiast for almost 9 years before exploding onto the scene thanks to the video Assassin's Creed Unity IRL. Loving the freedom created by Parkour, he pushes the limits of gravity during his races over the Paris rooftops. Second at FWS Hiroshima at the beginning of the year, this 24-year-old northerner is sure to delight the crowds at Montpellier with his stylish and creative moves.

Joseph GARBACCIO – age 21 – SKATEBOARD

Having started skateboarding at the age of 5, Joseph was very young when FISE welcomed him to the junior competition category. As an amateur, he has won all stages of FWS since he first represented his discipline in 2017. Now recognised as one of the best French hopes, he focuses on using the entire Park in runs that feature huge leaps.

Anthony JEANJEAN – age 21 – BMX FREESTYLE PARK

Anthony is the genuine “made in FISE” article. He discovered BMX aged 10, then spent three years training before entering his first FISE competition. He’s won at Junior and amateur levels and returns this year as a pro in his search of yet more titles. With his determination, he’s one of the best national hopes for the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.
