Media accreditation

« Media » accreditation will only be given to people who are attending the event for a professional purpose. Accredited journalists are granted permission to produce content dedicated to journalistic purposes only.

Accredited media will be given a Media wristband. It gives access to the festival zones Press Area and technical zones close to the park. It does not allow the access on the Park. It is not possible to transmit the accreditation to another person.

Practical information - Country information

Country: SAUDI ARABIA

Time Zone: CEST (UTC +3)

Money : Saudi Riyal (SAR)

Currency : SAR 1 = 0,27 USD

SAR 1 = 0,23 GBP

SAR 1 = 0,27 EUR

SAR 1 = 38,92 JPY

Electricity: In Saudi Arabia, they use type A/B/E/F. By this way, we recommend you to get a universal adaptator for your confort.

Dress Code: Dress code is dependent on individual establishments, some casual, others keen on sophistication. Places of worship specifically do require you to dress modestly while visiting. As you roam around, you will organically get a sense of what works best. Regarding women, wearing the veil (Hijab) is not compulsory in Saudi Arabia.

Etiquette: Bad language, loud behavior, and encroaching on other people's boundaries are considered disrespectful. Respectful public decorum is always advised. Using polite words in Arabic (e.g., Ahlan for Hi, Shokran for Thanks) is encouraged and viewed as a gesture of endearment.

Religion: Certain shops close briefly during prayer times to allow time for worship.

Alcohol and substances: The sale, purchase, and consumption of alcohol and drugs is illegal in Saudi Arabia.
